NATIVITY SCENE TO BE PURCHASED BY HURON CITIZEN GROUP

Contributed by YVONNE SCHOEDEL

A Huron Township civic organization's drive to put "Christ Back in Christmas" is well underway and picking up steam. The Concerned Citizens' Coalition has already raised approximately 25-percent of its goal of $8,500 to buy a nearly life-size nativity scene for display on private property.

TOWNSHIP BOARD ADDRESSES MANY ISSUES

by KIMBERLY BLAKER

On July 25, the Huron Township Board moved that the Recreation Commission call a special meeting to review a request by Huron Soccer Association.

Clerk Dawnette Bowers told the Board that the Huron Soccer Association had made a request to use Lajko Park for its soccer field in the fall.

Trustee Nora Adkins motioned to send the request to the Recreation Commission for review to make sure HSA's use of the park wouldn't interfere with other plans or events.

Treasurer Jarrod Barron recommended approving the request contingent on the Recreation Commission's approval.

However, Attorney Kevin Foley recommended calling a special meeting rather than making a determination contingent on the approval by a public body.

A motion was carried calling for a special meeting of the Recreation Commission to review HSA's request.

In other news:

- A request by Police Chief Metzger to promote Gregory Hinzmann to lieutenant and to promote Gary Dockter to sergeant was approved.

- Chief Metzger requested approval of a proposed policy for an employee recognition seminar and dinner. The Chief also included a budget requesting preliminary approval in order to begin planning for the event to be held in March 2002.

Trustee Larry O'Kelley said he liked the idea of the employee recognition, but was unsure about the expansion of the plan. The Chief said that the educational aspects were added in order to make the seminar legal, as indicated by the attorney. The Chief said the proposed budget of $1,500 was the top cost providing everyone who's invited attends the dinner.

Trustee Mary Lou Carey commented that under state law, only employees could be recognized, not elected officials. Therefore, elected officials will need to purchase tickets for the event.

O'Kelley questioned whether over $5,000 should be spent on employee recognition. The Chief said the Employee Recognition Committee felt is important. A motion to adopt the recommended policy and budget was approved.

- The Treasurer made a request to create a new position to hire a full-time clerk for the treasurer's office. Trustee Marlene Krause asked about the job description. The Treasurer said the clerk would assist him and the other employees in the department.

Carey said she didn't understand where the additional work load comes from since the printer now handles mailing out the tax bills. She said the department also no longer pulls tax bills to be submitted to resident's mortgage companies. The Treasurer gave a lengthy discussion of the department's responsibilities and commented that the department has "peaks and valleys."

The motion to advertise for the position was carried with Trustee Nora Adkins, Carey, and O'Kelley opposing.

- A request by Krause to advertise for bids for the sec-

SCHOOL BOARD NOT IN FAVOR OF AMERITECH OFFER

At the August 6, Board of Education meeting, a request by Ameritech to purchase a small plot on District property near the transportation area was discussed. Ameritech offered the district $5,000 for the plot.

The Superintendent said one concern that he was looking into is whether it would affect the director's tax-exempt status if the space were sold to Ameritech.

Vice President Donna Mendrysa expressed several concerns. She said she was concerned that with district growth, the district may have a need for the space in the future.

Business Manager Carol Miles said because the property is next to the creek she didn't feel it would ever be utilized by the district.

Mendrysa also questioned whether Ameritech would be installing high-voltage equipment on the property that could pose a risk to students.

The Superintendent said he'd look into the matter although he didn't believe that would be the case. He said the district's attorney is reviewing the request to determine any concerns the request could pose.

Trustee Ken Appleby suggested finding out how much money the Township received from a utility company that installed towers on Township property. Appleby felt that the value of the space that Ameritech was requesting is probably greater than what Ameritech is offering the District.

At the end of the meeting, Mendrysa brought up concern with the issue again. She requested that the attorney be contacted and told to stop reviewing the matter.

Mendrysa said she didn't want to spend District funds on the request.

Appleby and other board members commented that the request would have been more worthwhile to the District if Ameritech had offered a substantial dollar amount.

The Board decided to halt any review or consideration for the request.

In other news:

- Miller Elementary teacher Claire Welch turned in her resignation after 32 years with the District.

JAZZ ON THE RIVER

The best-kept secret in the whole entire area is downriver and it happens the first week-end of August at Elizabeth Park in Trenton. Since 1995, the Wayne county Parks and Recreation, a Committee of volunteers with Maureen Riske at the helm and musician Alexander Zonjic have organized the Jazz on the River concert series. For two days in the middle of summer, the park is filled with thousands of jazz lovers, young and old. The well-organized music festival brings friends and families together every year to hear their favorite music and share a great meal. I'm not the only one from the Township who shares this annual ritual, I spotted Supervisor John Mitchell and his wife Shirley among the thousands of fans who attend every year.

This year the weather was incredible, unlike past years. The sea of colorful umbrellas in the sun-drenched stage area made the perfect foreground to the Detroit River filled with boats and the stage filled with the best talent in the jazz world as a backdrop. This year's lineup included; Saturday with Gordon Camp, Brothers Groove, Gerald Veasley, Ken Navarro and Joe Sample. Sunday featured Detroit Jazz Fantasy, Tim Bowman, Alexander Zonjic and Friends, the Yellow-jackets and Chuck Mangione.

Larry Fitch, Director of Wayne County Parks and Recreation, told me that he has been very pleased with the success over the last six years. He also thinks that this will continue to be the perfect venue for this event.

I spoke to musician Alexander Zonjic about how he became involved with this project, he said that the original organizers had asked him to play at the first event, he liked the concept and the people he worked with so well that he decided to get involved, and the rest they say, is history. Zonjic is known around the southeast Michigan area for organizing several local events every year.

I also asked him how he gets such great entertainment to do a smaller event like this, he stated that jazz musicians just love to play for their fans and with elements like good publicity and the right place, they think this is perfect.

I was also curious about a few personal things like, when did he begin his interest in music? He started playing guitar at the age of eight or nine. Then at age 21 he discovered the flute, which us fans think is magical. I also wanted to know why he remains in the Detroit area and he replied, "this is home." He told me that he has been all over the world and this is where he wants to be, lucky for us he loves his hometown. Zonjic has been a morning DJ at jazz V98.7 for the last three and a half years and loves having a new avenue in music to explore.

The free concert weekend is sponsored by the Wayne County Parks and Recreation, Ford Motor Co., State Farm Insurance, V98.7, Friends of Wayne County Parks, The Grand and co-sponsored by National Steel - Great Lakes Division, SMART, Courtyard by Marriott, Detroit Edison, Walt Michal's RV Center, World Heritage Foundation, Heritage Newspapers, The Traverse Group, Trenton Parks and Recreation and Grosse Ile Township as well as patron sponsors Larry and Marion Fitch and Karen Mazo.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER SULLIVAN REPORT NOISE MITIGATION PROGRAM

Wayne County Commissioner John J. Sullivan, D-Wayne, has indicated that the Wayne County Commission Special Task Force, of which he is Vice-Chair, is close to recommending a complete overhaul of Metro Airport's Noise Mitigation Program. "This program has been run very poorly and has been extremely ineffective," he said.

Commissioner Sullivan has been questioning program operations from the day he took office as a Wayne County Commissioner just over two years ago. During his tenure, he has received numerous complaints from constituents in the City of Romulus and in Huron Township who had sound-insulating work begun on their homes three years ago, and still have not seen it completed.

The Noise Mitigation Program is sponsored by the Federal Aviation Administration and 80-percent of the funding comes from the federal government. The program's purpose is to assist homeowners who live near the airport with relocation or to reduce the level of plane noise that can enter the resident's existing home. The FAA created a noise map or zone outlining the benefits that residents are entitled to based upon location and proximity to the airport. A second phase of the program, involving sound insulating homes, began two years ago.

Sound-insulating work generally consisted of replacing windows and doors, and providing insulation in the exterior doors. Central air was also installed so residents need not open their windows in the summer. Another benefit that homes initially received was new aluminum siding over insulation on the outer walls.

However, Commissioner Sullivan said that standards for noise mitigation were not uniform, and homeowners began voicing concerns and complaints. "Now, for example, someone has decided that it is too expensive to put the new siding on the outside of the homes and that they will instead, just blow insulation into the outer walls, he said. "This is not what people were told when they signed up for the program, and as far as I am concerned, if siding was part of the program in the beginning, then it should be included."

Recognizing that there were major problems with the program, Commissioner Sullivan requested that the Wayne County Auditor General perform an audit, findings of which were released August 3. "What we are now seeing from the audit is what I had suspected," he said, citing excessive administration costs, lack of objectives and ineffective program management.

Commissioner Sullivan further stated that revisions to the program must include a reasonable timeline that requires contractors to complete work expediently. He indicated that additional stipulations must be put into place to ensure that contractors are held accountable for lack of performance.

"In addition," he said, "Wayne County needs to take a more active role in overseeing the program and making sure that it is properly run in the future. The people are going to hold Wayne County responsible regardless of how many companies they hire."

The Wayne County Task Force on Noise Mitigation has been meeting since January, in order to evaluate how the program has been run in the past and how deficiencies can be corrected. They are now utilizing information gleaned from the audit and from the federal government's investigation in order to compile a new program structure. Information from homeowners, especially, has proved invaluable.

Commissioner Sullivan said: "They (homeowners) have shown us what they have to go through and how the current program simply does not work. We will be able to use that information to change things and get the program working the way it should." He added that anew, revamped soundproofing plan, geared to be much more efficient and user-friendly, should be in place within a couple of months.

The Commissioner encourages residents affected by the program to voice their concerns by calling his office at (313) 224-0944.

RENTON JUNIOR HIGH CAREER DAY

On Career Day I went to Eastern Michigan University. I had a lot of fun. We asked questions to the students and I learned that at college there is no dress code, you can schedule your classes at any time, and that they have all sorts of classes you can take like horseback riding.

There's lots of stuff to do there like shop in their big gift shop, work out in the gym, or run the track and go swimming in their olympic-size pool. When you get hungry there's a food court where there is lots of food to pick from. There is also a doctor's office if they are sick. Their dorms were cool. You can decorate your dorm as much as you want. When it's time to study for a big test they have a three-floor library with computers. It is open till 3 o'clock in the morning but when there are a lot of tests going on it's open until 5 a.m.

I think this trip really inspired me to go to college there.

TOWNSHIP BOARD HOLDS WORKSHOP

by GEORGETTE HERON-WILLOUGHBY

Let's play nice and all get along. That was the sentiment of the Huron Township Board of Trustees when they went into a recent workshop meeting, but just when the agenda was about to be approved, it was denied. Several trustees had taken issue with some additions and so it was turned down as presented and amended to the previously established agenda, which was then approved.

Supervisor John Mitchell began the discussion by talking about micromanagement and motions being made during board member's individual reports.

Trustee Marlene Krause was up next with concerns from citizens who wish to voice their complaints or speak to the Supervisor and have been made to feel trivialized by his assistant. Trustee Nora Adkins has had similar complaints. Supervisor Mitchell responded by saying that he could not possibly take very call and that voice mail is a better way for him to get the information and attend to the situation. Clerk Dawnette Bowers feels that any complaints should be written out. Krause and Adkins stated that they were leery of retaliation against them from the executive board members. Treasurer Jarrod Barron suggested that people or officials who want to make a complaint should first state it verbally and then if a response has not been returned within a reasonable amount of time it should be put in written form. Krause also had a problem with the lack of communication within the Township offices and a lack of privacy when speaking with officials. She also wants the board to curtail last-minute additions to the agenda and follow through on approved motions. Trustee Krause would also like to see ordinance policies reviewed and updated. Trustee Carey added that she would like to have contractors checked more closely for required permits.

Trustee Nora Adkins wants more leeway to get general information from Township staff. Both the Supervisor and the Clerk expressed that they think the Trustees should come with any requests to the head of that department. Adkins also feels as though she and the rest of the Trustees are being treated as if they don't exist by some Township officials and are not being made aware of important Township information. Supervisor Mitchell stated that he doesn't feel that the Trustees should be informed of daily procedures.

Trustee Mary Lou Carey made it clear that she would like everyone on the board to put their personal issues aside so that they can better serve the public. Carey added that she would also like to be better informed. Trustee Carey suggested that the office keep an information box for important notices received by the Township, that way the Trustees can review the material at their leisure.

Trustee O'Kelley commented on the Clerk's attitude toward board members over the last several months.

Treasurer Jarrod Barron

wrapped up the workshop by saying that he wants to be more sympathetic to the Trustees and has no problem getting them the information they need from his department. Barron also commented about using the Township website for general information and bill payment. He wants to look into the budget for funds to get it started.

THANK YOU

Our annual D.A.R.E. softball fundraiser game was played on July 15, 2001, and was very successful with a real spirit of camaraderie and teamwork. The Huron Township Police and Fire Department played against McNasty's Bar for the second year. The traveling trophy was awarded to McNasty's this year. The St. Stephen's Catholic Youth Organization assisted serving refreshments and the proceeds went to our D.A.R.E. Program. State Representative George Mans handled the raffle for the 50/50 drawing and prizes to be given away.

Listed below are the donors who so generously contributed to the success of this event.

My condolences to everyone and anyone who must travel South Huron Road between Waltz and Clark Roads and to everyone and anyone who must travel Clark Road between South Huron and the entrance to Swan Creek. Why doesn't Wayne County get off its duff and pave those sections instead of wasting taxpayers money on repaving Vining Road when they are just going to replace it with a four-lane divided boulevard when the Pinnacle Project gets underway.

Just a reminder to everyone that St. Stephen's Festival is this weekend. Please support your local events.

A very, very, very special thank you to Frank and Nora Adkins for all their years of dedication to the Waltz Improvement Association by maintaining the Festival Grounds (using their own equipment), by supervising the private events held there and by Chairing the WIA-sponsored events. Once again, thank you Frank and Nora for being deeply involved in your community. Just wanted you to know how much you are appreciated.

TOWNSHIP

ond phase of the Senior Center was approved.

- A request to advertise for a new senior center van driver to replace the driver who recently resigned was approved.
- A belated request by the Treasurer to adjust the compensation of the director of the Summer Recreation Program was also approved.

- Director of Planning and Zoning Leslie Meyer reported on a recent meeting she attended with the airport noise program. She said that a contractor that had been involved in eight other noise programs explained numerous problems that have been seen in the Detroit Metro Airport's program.

1,600 surveys were mailed out to the homes in the noise program area. 300 respondents, including the phone responses, were very unhappy. Only 41 were pleased with the outcome. Meyer said the new director of the program, Scott Roberts, who is working to improve the program, can be contacted at 753-2205.

mendations for the Board of Directors of the Michigan Association of School Boards.

- A reinstatement committee was approved to review a recent petition for readmission of an expelled student. Previously the Board reviewed all requests for readmissions resulting from expulsion. The Superintendent said he wanted to set up an as-needed committee that would meet with parents and the expelled student who petition for readmission. The reinstatement committee will then make a recommendation to the Board.

- Coaches were approved for the upcoming school year. Before the approval, Treasurer Richard Zavodsky motioned to approve all but one coach. However, upon further discussion, Zavodsky withdrew his original motion and motioned to approve all the recommendations.

- Appleby brought up concern with the district's track, which appears to be defective. The Board plans to look into the matter to determine whether the track is indeed defective or if the District purchased a different type of surface than is commonly seen.

- Zavodsky commented that when re-roofing has been completed that a close inspection of the roofs pitch should be performed to insure the roofs will drain properly. The Superintendent said the roofs are slated to be finished on August 17.

• Appleby thanked Dave Kuykendahl and staff for their work on the school calendars that were recently mailed out.

Note: Congratulations to Superintendent Thomas Hosler, and his wife Robin, on the birth of their son, Harrison Thomas who was born on August 3.

"Area churches and business people were notified of our project. Several made donations, and many allowed us to place canisters for donations. The response has been encouraging."

The Nativity Scene will be displayed on private property in New Boston. Replicas of the Wise Men and camels will "travel" to the site with stops at participating churches.

The committee in charge of the Nativity Scene Project consists of Yvonne Schoedel, Barbara Bidwell, and Arlene Spodeck.

Donations are being accepted. The sponsorship categories are: Platinum, $250.00; Gold, $150.00; Silver, $100.00; Donor, $50.00.

Checks should be made payable to Concerned Citizens' Coalition Nativity Scene Project, and can be placed in a canister in businesses or churches in Huron Township, or mailed to Concerned Citizens' Coalition, Box 83, New Boston, MI 48164.

The Concerned Citizens' Coalition is an organization of Huron residents pledged to make positive contributions to the Huron community. The organization meets once a month to study and discuss issues that are vital to the well-being of the community.
